THE HIGH DESERT PALETTE SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The High Desert Palette is committed to showcasing local creatives and artists and their work. In everything from poetry to gaming reviews, we strive to display a sense of pride in local talent!

Our editors are interested in receiving and publishing original works of visual art as well as written pieces such as poems, short stories, and reviews! Published individuals will be gifted $25 for their contributions!

REVIEWS

We will accept reviews on art related topics such as video games, books, music, movies, live performances, etc. Be sure to include essential information such as title, author, studio, main actors, etc. Provide a basic summary, and most importantly give your opinion and evaluation on the subject. Finish your review with a rating (1-5 stars) and include a thoughtful conclusion.

Be sure to be courteous in your evaluation. Remember that you're reviewing a creative work or performance that another human poured their heart and soul into.

- ◆ Word count must be between 800 and 900.

CREATIVE WRITING

Other written contributions our editors look for include original creative writing in the form of flash fiction and poetry. We are looking for submissions that are well written and digestible. Any genre is welcome, but please refrain from including explicit content.

- ◆ Word count must not exceed 1,200 words if flash fiction.
- ◆ Poems must not exceed 50 lines.

VISUAL ARTWORKS

Finally, the High Desert Palette celebrates all forms of visual art! Any medium is welcome, but please refrain from including explicit content.

Show us what you can do!

Send submissions and further questions to willcoxtheater@gmail.com! Authors or artists of selected submissions will get $25 for their work.
